

Hot Dates | September 2010

FRIDAY
3

DEAUVILLE AMERICAN FILM FESTIVAL More than 100 films will be presented to the public, beginning today. Log onto www.festival-deauville.com/GB/ for more info.

TUESDAY
7

FASHION'S NIGHT OUT Don't miss out the night of all fashion nights when participating boutiques around the city welcome everyone for a drink and a shopping spree.

FRIDAY
17

PEACE ONE DAY CONCERT Patti Smith, Charlie Winston and Youssou N'Dour are only some of the artists performing tonight at Le Zénith in celebration of peace. Go to Fnac for tickets.

SATURDAY
18

HERITAGE DAY Today and tomorrow you can visit historical monuments around the city that are normally closed to the public. Log onto www.journeesdupatrimoine.culture.fr for further information.

SUNDAY
19

BAGATELLE Walk through the beautiful Bagatelle gardens with its perfectly manicured lawns and natural colourful arrangements.

TUESDAY
21

HOTEL LE MEURICE Treat yourself to tea time with a twist with Bombay Londres, the cocktail created by French artist Béatrice Ardisson. Infused with Darjeeling tea and mango syrup, this gin based drink will take you from tea time to happy hour in no time.

WEDNESDAY
22

MCCOLLIN BRYAN Discover the talented designer's creations at the magnificent Pavillon Ledoyen, the 3-star restaurant. Carré des Champs-Élysées (8th).

THURSDAY
23

PETIT PALAIS Marking the 25th anniversary of Reporters Without Borders, this fine arts museum is showcasing the works of talented Pierre and Alexandra Boulat, p. 47.

SATURDAY
25

TECHNO PARADE For the 12th year running, the streets of Paris turn into a huge music parade, taking you from Place Denfert-Rochereau to Place de la Bastille.

THURSDAY

30 Take part in the largest fashion show in the world. Organised by Galeries Lafayette, boulevard Haussmann will be the makeshift catwalk for everyone to showcase their unique style. You have till the 18th of September to sign up for the event that will have the entire city strutting their stuff.

www.galerieslafayette.com

Share this article online. Go to www.where.hy.pr/september